

Collector's Badge

To get this badge, you must:

1. Have an impressive collection of something you have spent at least three months working on.
2. Make an exciting and interesting presentation of your collection to the Pack (bring it in, display it smartly, and talk to us about it)
3. Visit or look at a collection made by somebody else (a friend's collection, or a collection in a museum, or something similar) and tell the group about it. What did you like about it? What do you think they should do to organise or present their collection better? What did you think their collection was missing, that they should try and find?
